

Act C of 2012
on the Criminal Code

With a view to protecting inviolable and inalienable human rights, to defending the independence and territorial integrity of the country, and to protecting the nation's economic and financial interest, taking into account Hungary's international legal commitments as well as European Union policies, in order to enforce the State's exclusive jurisdiction in criminal matters,

Parliament has adopted the following Act:

GENERAL PART

CHAPTER I

BASIC PROVISIONS

Principle of Legality

Section 1

(1) Criminal liability may be established only in connection with a conduct that a legal instrument requires to be criminalized at the time when committed, with the exception of acts which are punishable under universally acknowledged rules of international law.

(2) A penalty or measure may not be imposed for a criminal offense that was not criminalized by legal instrument at the time when committed, or - in the case provided for in Subsection (2) of Section 2 - at the time when adjudicated.

CHAPTER II

JURISDICTION IN CRIMINAL MATTERS

Temporal Scope

Section 2

(1) Subject to the exceptions set out in Subsections (2)-(3), criminal offenses shall be adjudicated under the criminal law in effect at the time when they were committed.

(2) Where an act is no longer treated as a criminal offense, or if it draws a more lenient penalty under the new criminal law in effect at the time when it is adjudicated, this new law shall apply.

(3) The new criminal law shall apply with retroactive effect in connection with acts which are punishable under universally acknowledged rules of international law, if such acts did not constitute a criminal offense under Hungarian criminal law at the time when they were committed.

Territorial and Personal Scope

Section 3

(1) Hungarian criminal law shall apply:

a) to criminal offenses committed in Hungary;

b) to criminal offenses committed on commercial ships or watercraft sailing, or aircraft flying under Hungarian flag outside the territory of Hungary;

c) to any act of Hungarian citizens committed abroad, which are criminalized in accordance with Hungarian law.

(2) Hungarian criminal law shall, furthermore, apply:

a) to any act committed by non-Hungarian citizens abroad, if:

aa) it is punishable as a criminal offense under Hungarian law and in accordance with the laws of the country where committed,

ab) it is recognized as an offense against the State, excluding espionage against allied armed forces, regardless of whether or not it is punishable in accordance with the law of the country where committed,

ac) it constitutes a criminal act under Chapter XIII or XIV, or any other criminal offenses which are to be prosecuted under international treaty ratified by an act of Parliament;

b) to any act committed by non-Hungarian citizens abroad against a Hungarian national or against a legal person or unincorporated business association established under Hungarian law, which are punishable under Hungarian law.

(3) In the cases described in Subsection (2) criminal proceedings are opened by order of the Prosecutor General.

CHAPTER III

CRIMINAL LIABILITY

Criminal Offenses

Section 4

(1) ‘Criminal offense’ means any conduct that is committed intentionally or - if negligence also carries a punishment - with negligence, and that is considered potentially harmful to society and that is punishable under this Act.

(2) An ‘act harmful to society’ means any activity or passive negligence which prejudices or presents a risk to the person or rights of others, or the fundamental constitutional, economic or social structure of Hungary provided for in the Fundamental Law.

Section 5

Criminal offences may be classified as felonies and misdemeanors. Felony is a crime committed intentionally which is punishable under this Act by imprisonment of two or more years. Every other criminal offense is a misdemeanor.

Plurality of Offenses and Cumulative Offenses

Section 6

(1) 'Multiple counts of offenses' means when one or more acts committed by the same person result in more than one crime and they are adjudicated in the same proceedings.

(2) Multiple counts of offenses shall not cover a cumulative offense committed by a repetition of acts of the same kind, against the same victim, motivated by a single objective, and which may occur in brief intervals.

Intent

Section 7

A criminal offense is committed with intent if the person conceives a plan to achieve a certain result, or acquiesces to the consequences of his conduct.

Negligence

Section 8

'Negligence' means when a criminal offense is committed where the perpetrator is able to anticipate the possible consequences of his conduct, but carelessly relies on their non-occurrence, or fails to foresee such possible consequences through conduct characterized by carelessness and neglectfulness.

Responsibility for the Result as an Aggravating Circumstance

Section 9

The more severe consequences attached to the result as a qualifying circumstance of the crime may be applied if the perpetrator is at least charged with negligence in respect of the result.

Attempt

Section 10

(1) Any person who carries out an act with intent to commit a premeditated crime, without finishing it, shall be punishable for attempt.

(2) The sentence applicable to a completed criminal act shall also apply to attempt.

(3) The penalty may be reduced without limitation or dismissed altogether if the attempt has been carried out on an unsuitable subject, with an unsuitable instrument or by way of unsuitable means.

(4) Any person:

a) who voluntarily withdraws from the completion of the criminal act, or

b) who attempts to prevent the crime on his own volition, shall not be prosecuted for attempt.

(5) If in the case provided for in Subsection (4) the attempt in itself constitutes another crime, the perpetrator shall be liable for prosecution for that crime.

Preparation

Section 11

(1) If it is expressly prescribed by this Act, any person who provides the means necessary for committing a criminal offense or facilitating that, and who invites, volunteers or undertakes to commit a crime, or agrees to commit a crime in league with others shall be punishable for preparation.

(2) Any person:

a) who voluntarily withdraws from the commencement of the criminal act,

b) who withdraws his invitation, offer, undertaking with a view to avoiding the perpetration, or attempts to pursue other contributors to withdraw from the criminal activity, provided that the commencement of the perpetration of the criminal offense does not take place for any reason, or

c) who reports to the authority the preparation before commencement of the perpetration of the criminal offense, shall not be prosecuted for preparation.

(3) If in the case provided for in Subsection (2) the preparation in itself constitutes another crime, the perpetrator shall be liable for prosecution for that crime.

The Perpetrator

Section 12

‘Perpetrator’ means the principal, the covert offender and the coactor (hereinafter referred to as “parties to a crime”), as well as the abettor and the aider (hereinafter referred to collectively as “accomplices”).

Section 13

(1) Perpetrator is a person who actually commits a criminal act.

(2) Covert offender is a person who instigates the commission of an intentional offense by using a person who cannot be prosecuted for reason of minority or insanity, or for reason of acting under undue influence by coercion or duress, or under misconception.

(3) Coactor is a person who knowingly and voluntarily participates in a criminal act jointly with others, in full knowledge of each others activities.

Section 14

(1) Abettor is a person who intentionally persuades another person to commit a crime.

(2) Accomplice is a person who knowingly and voluntarily helps another person to commit a crime.

(3) The penalties applicable to parties to a crime shall also apply to accomplices.

CHAPTER IV

GROUND FOR TOTAL OR PARTIAL EXEMPTION FROM CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Section 15

The perpetrator may be totally or partially exempted from criminal responsibility, or an act may be fully or partly exempted from criminalization on the following grounds:

- a) being below the age of criminal responsibility;
- b) insanity;
- c) coercion and threat;
- d) mistake;
- e) justifiable defense;
- f) means of last resort;
- g) statutory authorization;
- h) other grounds defined by law.

Minimum Age of Criminal Responsibility

Section 16

Persons under the age of fourteen years at the time the criminal offense was committed shall be exempt from criminal responsibility, with the exception of homicide [Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 160], voluntary manslaughter (Section 161), battery [Subsection (8) of Section 164], robbery [Subsections (1)-(4) of Section 365] and plundering [Subsections (2)-(3) of Section 366], if over the age of twelve years at the time the criminal offense was committed, and if having the capacity to understand the nature and consequences of his acts.

Insanity

Section 17

(1) Any person who has committed a criminal act in a state of impairment of the mind of a character such that it is impossible for the person so afflicted to understand the nature and consequences of his acts, shall not be prosecuted.

(2) The penalty may be reduced without limitation if the state of impairment of the perpetrator's mind is of a character such that it is difficult for him to understand the nature and consequences of his acts.

Section 18

The provisions of Section 17 shall not apply to persons who engage in criminal activity under self-inflicted influence by alcohol or narcotic drugs.

Coercion and Threat

Section 19

(1) Any person who has committed a criminal act under undue influence by coercion or threat, depriving him of the capacity to act according to his own free will shall not be prosecuted.

(2) The penalty may be reduced without limitation if the coercion or threat deprives the perpetrator of the capacity to act according to his own free will.

Mistake

Section 20

(1) Any person who engages in a criminal act but he was unaware of the circumstances that made his act a crime shall not be prosecuted.

(2) Any person who commits an act on the mistaken assumption that it is not harmful to society and who has reasonable grounds for this presumption shall not be prosecuted.

(3) A mistaken assumption shall not exclude punishability if it is caused by negligence, and if the act is punishable under this Act if resulting from negligence.

Justifiable Defense

Section 21

Any person who uses such means of defense, which are not recognized as a deadly weapon, installed for his own protection and/or for the protection of others against the peril with which he is threatened in the event of an unlawful attack shall not be prosecuted for the injury the aggressor sustained in consequence, provided that the person on the defensive has done everything within his power to avoid the injury.

Section 22

(1) No penalty shall be imposed upon a person for any action that is necessary to prevent an unlawful attack against his person or his property, or against the person or property of others, against the public interest, or an unlawful attack posing a direct threat in respect thereof.

(2) The unlawful attack shall be construed to pose an imminent danger of death if committed:

a) against a person

aa) at night,

ab) by displaying a deadly weapon,

ac) by carrying a deadly weapon, or

ad) in a gang;

b) by way of intrusion into the victim's home

ba) at night,

bb) by displaying a deadly weapon,

bc) by carrying a deadly weapon, or

bd) in a gang;

or

c) by way of illegal and armed intrusion into the fenced area of a home.

(3) Any person who exceeds the reasonable force of self-defense due to shock or justifiable aggravation shall not be prosecuted.

(4) The person assaulted shall not be liable to take evasive action so as to avoid the unlawful attack.

Means of Last Resort

Section 23

(1) Any person who engages in conduct to save his own person or property or the person or property of others from an imminent danger that cannot otherwise be prevented, or acts so in the defense of the public interest shall not be prosecuted, provided that the harm caused by the act does not exceed the peril with which he was threatened.

(2) No penalty shall be imposed upon a person who causes harm of the same or greater extent than the one for the prevention of which he made efforts for he was unable to recognize the magnitude of the harm due to shock or justifiable aggravation.

(3) The concept of means of last resort shall not apply to any person who is responsible for the danger or whose professional duty includes exposure to danger.

Statutory Authorization

Section 24

An act that is authorized by law or that is exempted from punishment by law shall not be criminalized.

CHAPTER V

GROUND FOR EXEMPTION FROM CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Section 25

Criminal responsibility shall be excluded:

- a) upon the death of the perpetrator;
- b) by statutory limitation;
- c) by clemency;
- d) upon voluntary restitution;
- e) under other grounds defined by law.

Statutes of Limitations

Section 26

(1) Save where Subsections (2)-(3) apply, and unless otherwise provided for by the Act on the Exclusion of Statutes of Limitation for Certain Crimes, prosecution is barred upon the lapse of time equal to the maximum penalty prescribed, or after not less than five years.

(2) In connection with voluntary manslaughter, intentional grievous bodily injury punishable by imprisonment of more than three years, kidnapping, trafficking in human beings, illegal restraint, including criminal offense against sexual freedom and sexual offenses - if at the time when the crime was committed the victim is under the age of eighteen years, and prosecution of the crime is statute barred before the perpetrator's twenty-third birthday - the limitation period is extended until the time the victim reaches the age twenty-three years, or until the time that such person would have reached the age of twenty-three years.

(3) No statute of limitations applies to the crimes defined in Chapters XIII and XIV, and to crimes which carry a maximum sentence of life imprisonment.

Section 27

The first day of the period of limitation is:

- a) in case of a completed criminal act, the day when the crime is actually committed;
- b) in case of attempt and preparation, the day when the act resulting in consequence is carried out;
- c) in case of an act that is considered a criminal offense only if relates to a breach of duty, the last day that of which the perpetrator has to discharge his duty without the consequences set out in this Act;
- d) in case of criminal offenses which manifests in the maintenance of an infringement, on the day when the infringement ceases to exist.

Section 28

(1) The statute of limitation shall be interrupted by any action of the court, the public prosecutor, the investigating authorities, or - in international cases - by the minister in charge of the judicial system or the competent foreign authority taken against the perpetrator in connection with the crime. The period of limitation shall restart on the day of the interruption.

(2) If the criminal proceedings are suspended, the period of suspension shall not be included in the period of limitation. This provision shall not apply where criminal proceedings are suspended if the investigation failed to turn up evidence as to the perpetrator's identity, and if the perpetrator cannot be located or has become mentally ill.

(3) When a criminal proceeding is postponed or suspended on the grounds of exemption stemming from holding a public office, and by virtue of the fact that the immunity granted by law was not suspended by the body having powers to do so, the period of time of such delay shall not be included in the period of limitation. This provision shall not apply to criminal cases under private prosecution, where the case is presented by the private prosecutor.

(4) The period of deferral of prosecution, in the case of a conditional sentence, the period of probation and the period of work performed in reparation shall not be included in the period of limitation.

Active Repentance

Section 29

(1) Any person who has committed any misdemeanor offense against life, physical integrity or health, against personal freedom, against human dignity and fundamental rights, any traffic offense, offenses against property or against intellectual property rights, or any crime punishable by imprisonment not exceeding three years, shall not be prosecuted if he has admitted his guilt before being indicted, and has provided restitution by way of the means and to the extent accepted by the injured party within the framework of a meditation process, or previously if approved in the meditation process. This provision shall also apply in connection with multiple counts of offenses, where the criminal offense against life, physical integrity or health, against personal freedom, against human dignity and fundamental rights, traffic offense, offense against property or against intellectual property rights is considered decisive.

(2) The penalty may be reduced without limitation if the perpetrator has admitted his guilt of having committed either of the crimes specified in Subsection (1), punishable by imprisonment not exceeding five years, before being indicted, and has provided restitution by way of the means and to the extent accepted by the injured party within the framework of a meditation process, or previously if approved in the meditation process. This provision shall also apply in connection with multiple counts of offenses, where the criminal offense against life, physical integrity or health, against personal freedom, against human dignity and fundamental rights, traffic offense, offense against property or against intellectual property rights is considered decisive.

(3) Subsections (1)-(2) shall not apply if the perpetrator:

- a) is a repeat offender or a habitual recidivist;

b) committed the crime in the framework of a criminal organization;

c) committed a crime resulting in death;

d) committed a criminal offense intentionally while on probation as a result of suspension of a prison sentence or, in consequence of the commission of an intentional criminal offense, after being sentenced to serve a prison term and before he has finished serving his sentence, or while released on probation or during the period of deferral of prosecution; or

e) has been a party to a meditation process on account of a previous criminal act of intent, and in consequence Subsection (1) or (2) hereof had been applied, if another criminal act had been committed within two years from the time of the final and binding ruling becoming enforceable.

CHAPTER VI

OTHER OBSTACLES OF CRIMINAL PROSECUTION

Section 30

Criminal prosecution shall be precluded lacking:

a) a private motion;

b) an official complaint.

Absence of Private Motion

Section 31

(1) In specific cases defined in this Act the perpetrator of a criminal offense is punishable only on the basis of a private motion.

(2) The victim shall be entitled to lodge the private motion.

(3) If the victim is of limited legal capacity, the private motion may likewise be submitted by his legal representative, and if lacking legal capacity, it may be submitted exclusively by his legal representative. In these cases the guardian authority shall also be entitled to submit the private motion.

(4) If the victim who is entitled to submit the private motion dies, his relative shall be entitled to submit the private motion.

(5) The motion submitted against any one of the perpetrators shall apply to all perpetrators.

(6) A private motion may not be withdrawn.

Absence of Complaint

Section 32

In specific cases defined in this Act the perpetrator of a criminal offense is punishable only on the basis of a complaint filed by the entitled party.

CHAPTER VII

PENALTIES

Section 33

(1) Penalties are:

- a)* imprisonment;
- b)* custodial arrest;
- c)* community service work;
- d)* fine;
- e)* prohibition to exercise professional activity;
- f)* driving ban;
- g)* prohibition from residing in a particular area;
- h)* ban from visiting sport events;
- i)* expulsion.

(2) Deprivation of civil rights may be imposed as a form of additional penalty.

(3) Subject to the exceptions set out in Subsections (5) and (6) hereof, the punishments may be imposed concurrently as well.

(4) If the criminal offense committed carries a maximum sentence of three years of imprisonment, the term of imprisonment may be substituted by custodial arrest, community service work, fine, prohibition to exercise professional activity, driving ban, prohibition from residing in a particular area, ban from visiting sport events or expulsion, or by any combination of these.

(5) If the criminal offense committed carries a penalty of custodial arrest, this penalty may be substituted or combined with, community service work, fine, prohibition to exercise professional activity, driving ban, prohibition to exercise professional activity, ban from visiting sport events or expulsion, or by any combination of these.

(6) The following penalties may not be imposed concurrently:

- a)* imprisonment with custodial arrest or community service work;
- b)* expulsion with community service work or fine.

Imprisonment

Section 34

Imprisonment is imposed for a fixed duration or for a life term.

Section 35

(1) If the court imposed a term of imprisonment, it shall be carried out in a jail, correctional institution or penitentiary.

(2) In view of the circumstances to be taken into consideration for sentencing, the type of incarceration may be prescribed one degree up or down. This provision shall not apply to life imprisonment imposed under Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 44 and Subsection (2) of Section 90.

Fixed-Term Imprisonment

Section 36

The minimum and the maximum duration of a fixed-term imprisonment shall be three months and twenty years, respectively; for crimes committed in the framework of a criminal organization, if the perpetrator is a repeat offender or a habitual recidivist, as well as in the case of cumulative sentences or the merger of sentences it shall be twenty-five years.

Section 37

(1) A sentence of imprisonment imposed for a misdemeanor offense shall be carried out in a jail, except if the convicted perpetrator is a recidivist.

(2) A sentence of imprisonment imposed shall be carried out in a correctional institution if:

a) it has been imposed for a felony; or

b) it has been imposed for a misdemeanor, and the convicted perpetrator is a recidivist.

(3) A sentence of imprisonment imposed shall be carried out in a penitentiary if:

a) imposed for term of three years or more:

aa) for a criminal offense covered in Chapter XIII, XIV or XXIV, ab) for a military offense carrying a maximum sentence of life imprisonment,

ac) for acts of terrorism [Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 314, Sections 315-316], terrorist financing [Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 318], unlawful seizure of a vehicle [Subsections (1)-(3) of Section 320], participation in a criminal organization [Subsection (1) of Section 321], criminal offenses with explosives or blasting agents (Section 324), criminal offenses with firearms and ammunition [Subsections (1)-(3) of Section 325], criminal offenses with weapons prohibited by international convention [Subsections (1)-(6) of Section 326], criminal offenses with military items and services [Subsections (1)-(4) of Section 329], criminal offenses with dual-use items [Subsections (1)-(3) of Section 330],

ad) homicide, unlawful drug trafficking, possession of narcotic drugs, kidnapping, trafficking in human beings, sexual violence, public endangerment, violation of international economic sanctions or aggravated cases of robbery [Subsection (2) of Section 160, Subsections (2)-(3) of Section 176, Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 177, Subsection (2) of Section 178, Subsection (2) of Section 179, Subsections (2)-(4) of Section 190, Subsections (2)-(6) of Section 192, Subsections (2)-(4) of Section 197, Subsections (2)-(3) of Section 322, Subsection (3) of Section 327, Subsections (3)-(4) of Section 365];

or

b) imposed for a term of two years or more, and the convicted perpetrator:

ba) is a repeat offender, or

bb) committed the crime in the framework of a criminal organization.

Release on Parole from Fixed-Term Imprisonment

Section 38

(1) If the sentence is for a fixed-term imprisonment, the court shall specify in the sentence the earliest date of eligibility for parole, or - in the case provided for in Subsection (4) hereof - preclude any eligibility for parole.

(2) If release on parole has not been excluded, the earliest date of eligibility shall:

a) fall on the next day when two-thirds of the sentence has been served;

b) in the case of recidivist, fall on the next day when three-quarters of the sentence has been served;

in either case, at least three months have to be served.

(3) If the sentence imposed is for less than five years of imprisonment, in cases deserving special consideration, the court may include a clause of eligibility for parole after one half of the sentence has been served. This provision may not be applied for repeat offenders.

(4) The following may not be released on parole:

a) repeat offenders, if their term of imprisonment is to be carried out in a penitentiary;

b) repeat offenders with a history of violence;

c) persons sentenced for criminal offenses committed in the framework of a criminal organization;

d) any person who has been sentenced to imprisonment for an intentional criminal offense committed after being previously sentenced for a term of imprisonment, before that term has been served in full or before the day when it ceases to be enforceable.

Section 39

(1) In the case of fixed-term imprisonment, the duration of parole shall be the same as the remaining part of the term of imprisonment, or not less than one year. Where Subsection (3) of Section 38 applies, the court in its ruling may set the duration of parole extended by at least one year and by not more than three years.

(2) If the time remaining from imprisonment is less than one year, and its execution has not been ordered, the sentence shall be deemed served upon the last day of the remaining part after the period of parole.

Section 40

(1) The court shall terminate the parole, if the prisoner is sentenced to a term of executable imprisonment:

a) during the time when released on parole for a crime committed after the date on which the decision of the court becomes enforceable, or

b) for a crime committed during the time when released on parole.

(2) If the prisoner is sentenced in addition to the punishment referred to in Subsection (1), the court may terminate the parole.

(3) In case of the termination of parole the time spent on parole shall not be included in the time of imprisonment.

(4) If during the period of parole the parolee is to serve a term of imprisonment for a criminal offense he has committed before the previous sentence became final, the period of parole shall be interrupted by the execution of this imprisonment, and the court shall postpone the earliest date for restarting the period of parole:

a) until the date when released on parole from the latter term of imprisonment, or

b) until the date when the term of imprisonment is executed, if release on parole from the latter term of imprisonment is excluded.

Life Imprisonment

Section 41

(1) Only persons over the age of twenty at the time of commission of the criminal act shall be sentenced to life imprisonment. This provision also applies to the life sentences imposed under Subsection (4) of Section 81 and Subsection (2) of Section 90.

(2) Life imprisonment shall be served in a penitentiary.

Release on Parole from Life Imprisonment

Section 42

In the event a sentence of life imprisonment is imposed, the court shall specify the earliest date of eligibility for parole, or shall preclude any eligibility for parole.

Section 43

(1) If the court has not precluded eligibility for parole with a sentence of life imprisonment, the earliest date of release on parole shall be after serving twenty-five years, or at least forty years. The earliest time of release on parole shall be determined in years.

(2) The duration of parole in the case of life imprisonment shall be not less than fifteen years.

Section 44

(1) In the event a sentence of life imprisonment is imposed, the court may deny the possibility of parole only in connection with the following crimes:

- a)* genocide [Subsection (1) of Section 142];
- b)* crimes against humanity [Subsection (1) of Section 143];
- c)* apartheid [Subsections (1) and (3) of Section 144];
- d)* aggravated cases of assault against a war emissary [Subsection (2) of Section 148];
- e)* assault on protected persons [Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 149];
- f)* use of a weapon prohibited by international convention [Subsection (1) of Section 155];
- g)* other war crimes (Section 158);
- h)* aggravated cases of homicide [Subsection (2) of Section 160];
- i)* aggravated cases of kidnapping [Subsections (3)-(4) of Section 190];
- j)* aggravated cases of trafficking in human beings [Subsection (6) of Section 192];
- k)* attempt to overturn constitutional order by force [Subsection (1) of Section 254];
- l)* aggravated cases of destruction [Subsection (2) of Section 257];
- m)* aggravated cases of prison riot [Subsection (4) of Section 284];
- n)* acts of terrorism [Subsection (1) of Section 314];

o) aggravated cases of unlawful seizure of a vehicle [Subsection (2) of Section 320];

p) aggravated cases of public endangerment [Subsection (3) of Section 322];

q) aggravated cases of mutiny [Subsection (4) of Section 442];

r) aggravated cases of assault on a superior officer or representative of public authority [Subsection (5) of Section 445];

if committed by using actual force against a person or a thing.

(2) The possibility of parole shall be denied if the perpetrator:

a) is a repeat offender with a history of violence; or

b) committed the criminal offense defined in Subsection (1) in the framework of a criminal organization.

Section 45

(1) If, while serving a term of life imprisonment, a prisoner is sentenced to a specific term of executable imprisonment for a criminal offense committed before being sentenced to life imprisonment, the court shall postpone the earliest date of release on parole for the duration of such specific term of executable imprisonment.

(2) If a prisoner who is released on parole from life imprisonment is sentenced to a specific term of executable imprisonment for a criminal offense committed before receiving such sentence of life imprisonment, the court shall revoke the parole and shall postpone the earliest date of release on parole for the duration of such specific term of executable imprisonment.

(3) If, while serving a term of life imprisonment, a prisoner is sentenced while serving a term of life imprisonment to a specific term of executable imprisonment for a criminal act committed before receiving such sentence of life imprisonment, the court shall postpone the earliest date of release on parole for the duration of such specific term of imprisonment or for a period of not less than five years and not more than twenty years.

(4) If a prisoner who is released on parole from life imprisonment is sentenced to a specific term of imprisonment for a criminal offense committed while serving such sentence of life imprisonment, the court shall terminate the parole and shall postpone the earliest date of release on parole for the duration of such specific term of imprisonment or for a period of not less than five years and not more than twenty years.

(5) If a prisoner who is released on parole from life imprisonment is sentenced to a specific term of imprisonment for a criminal offense committed after being released on parole from such life imprisonment, the court shall terminate the parole and shall postpone the earliest date of release on parole for the duration of such specific term of imprisonment or for a period of not less than five years and not more than twenty years.

(6) If the earliest date of release on parole from life imprisonment is postponed due to being sentenced for a specific term of imprisonment under Subsections (1), (2), (4) and (5) hereof, the earliest date of release on parole shall be determined taking into consideration the time of preliminary detention deducted from the fixed-term sentence, as well as the duration of any house arrest.

(7) A person sentenced to life imprisonment may not be released on parole if he is sentenced to another term of life imprisonment. The second sentence of life imprisonment shall not be carried out before the previous term of life imprisonment is executed.

(8)

Custodial Arrest

Section 46

(1) The duration of custodial arrest shall be determined in days. The minimum and the maximum duration of custodial arrest shall be five days and ninety days, respectively.

(2) Custodial arrest shall be carried out in a penal institution.

Community Service Work

Section 47

(1) The duration of community service work shall be defined in hours; it may not be less than forty-eight hours and may not be more than three hundred and twelve hours.

(2) Unless otherwise provided for by law, the defendant shall perform the community service work at least on one day per week, on the weekly day of rest or on his day off, without any remuneration.

(3) The court ruling shall provide for the type of community service work to be performed.

(4) The person sentenced to community service work is obligated to perform the work prescribed. The work prescribed to be performed in community service is to be such that the defendant is presumed to be capable of performing, taking into consideration his health condition and education.

Section 48

(1) If the defendant fails to comply with his work obligation for reasons within his control, the community service work, or the remaining part thereof, shall be substituted to imprisonment.

(2) The term of imprisonment imposed in place of community service work shall be carried out in a penal institution, in the jail section.

(3) The term of imprisonment imposed in place of community service work may be less than three months.

Section 49

If the defendant is sentenced to a term of executable imprisonment for a criminal offense committed after being sentenced to community service work, and the community service work has not yet been carried out, the community service work or the remaining part thereof shall be substituted to imprisonment at the rate of four hours of community service work for one day of imprisonment. The duration of community service work remaining following substitution shall correspond to one day of imprisonment.

The Fine

Section 50

(1) When imposing a fine, the amount shall be determined in view of the severity of the criminal offense and divided evenly among a specific number of days, each day representing the same amount of money, determined in accordance with the financial situation and income, and the everyday needs of the perpetrator.

(2) The person who is sentenced to a fixed-term imprisonment for a criminal offense committed with the purpose of financial gain and has sufficient income or property shall also have a fine imposed.

(3) The minimum and the maximum number of days representing a fine shall be between thirty and five hundred forty days, respectively. The amount of fine for one day shall be minimum one thousand and maximum five hundred thousand forints.

(4) In its ruling the court may authorize the perpetrator - on account of his financial situation - to pay the fine in monthly installments within a maximum period of two years.

Section 51

(1) If the defendant did not pay the fine, or if failed to pay a monthly installment where payment by installment had been authorized, the fine or the unpaid portion shall be substituted by the appropriate term of imprisonment.

(2) Where fine had been imposed in addition to a term of executable imprisonment, or if a suspended sentence is ordered to be carried out, the degree of security of the imprisonment carried out in substitution of the fine shall correspond to the original term. In other cases, where imprisonment is ordered in substitution of a fine it shall be served in a jail.

(3) The term of imprisonment imposed in place of a fine may be less than two months.

Prohibition to Exercise Professional Activity

Section 52

(1) Prohibition to exercise professional activity may be imposed upon a person who has committed a criminal offense:

a) through the violation of the rules of his/her profession requiring professional qualifications; or

b) knowingly, by using his profession.

(2) Paragraph a) of Subsection (1) shall also apply to any person who did not work in the profession in question at the time the criminal offense was committed, however, he/she has the necessary qualification for the profession in the exercise of which the offense was committed.

(3) In connection with any criminal offense against sexual freedom and sexual offenses, if at the time when the crime was committed the victim is under the age of eighteen years, the perpetrator may be banned from the exercise of any professional activity where it involves the responsibility for providing education, care, custody or medical treatment to a person under the age of eighteen years, or if it involves a recognized position of trust, authority or influence over such person.

Section 53

(1) The prohibition to exercise professional activity may be ordered for a definite term, or permanently.

(2) The minimum duration of such prohibition shall be one year, its maximum duration shall be ten years. A person who is unsuitable or unworthy for the profession in question may have the privilege withdrawn permanently.

(3) The duration of prohibition to exercise professional activity shall begin when the sentence becomes enforceable. Where prohibition to exercise professional activity is ordered in addition to a term of imprisonment, the period of time of imprisonment served, and the period of time during which the convict withdraws himself from the execution of the imprisonment shall not be included in its duration. If the parole is not withdrawn, the time spent on parole shall be included in the duration of prohibition to exercise professional activity.

(4) The court may - upon request - exempt a person subject to permanent prohibition, if it was ordered ten years before and the person is found capable or worthy - if prohibition was ordered on the grounds of unworthiness - to engage in that profession. In the latter case, no exemption shall be granted if the criminal offense was committed in the framework of a criminal organization.

Section 54

In the application of the present subtitle, the concept of profession shall likewise cover if the offender:

a) is a member or sole director of a body exercising general control of an economic operator;

- b) is a member of the supervisory board of a business association or cooperative;
- c) is a member of a sole proprietorship;
- d) is a private entrepreneur; or
- e) is an executive officer of a civil society organization as provided for in the act on civil society organizations.

Driving Ban

Section 55

(1) Driving privileges may be suspended with respect to a person who:

- a) committed a criminal offense through the violation of regulations relating to the controlled operation of a motor vehicle,
- b) uses a motor vehicle for any criminal activity.

(2) Driving ban shall be imposed for the criminal offenses of driving under the influence of alcohol or driving under the influence of drugs. In cases deserving special consideration, mandatory driving ban may be dismissed.

(3) Driving ban may be imposed for specific types (aircraft, railway, vessels or road transport) and categories of vehicles as well.

Section 56

(1) Driving ban may be ordered for a definite term, or permanently.

(2) The duration of suspension of driving privileges shall include the period for which the perpetrator's driving license was confiscated on site in connection with the criminal offense before the time of delivery of the sentence of suspension of driving privileges, or it was surrendered to the competent authority.

(3) The minimum duration of driving ban shall be one month, its maximum duration shall be ten years. The period of driving ban shall be defined in months or in years, or in years and months.

(4) The duration of driving ban shall begin when the sentence becomes enforceable. Where driving ban is ordered in addition to a term of imprisonment, the period of time of imprisonment served, and the period of time during which the convict withdraws himself from the execution of the imprisonment shall not be included in its duration. If the parole is not withdrawn, the time spent on parole shall be included in the duration of driving ban.

(5) Any person who is unsuitable for operating a vehicle may have the privilege withdrawn permanently. The court may - upon request - exempt a person subject to permanent ban, if it was ordered ten years before and the person is found suitable to operate a vehicle.

Prohibition from Residing in a Particular Area

Section 57

(1) In the cases provided for in this Act, any person whose residence is deemed contrary to public interests shall be banished from one or more municipalities or from a designated part of a municipality or of the country.

(2) The minimum duration of banishment shall be one year, its maximum duration shall be five years.

(3) The duration of banishment shall begin when the sentence becomes enforceable. Where banishment is ordered in addition to a term of imprisonment, the period of time of imprisonment served, and the period of time during which the convict withdraws himself from the execution of the imprisonment shall not be included in its duration. If the parole is not withdrawn, the time spent on parole shall be included in the duration of banishment.

Ban from Visiting Sport Events

Section 58

(1) Any person having committed a criminal offense during a sport event, or during the time of commute to or from the sport event, in connection with the sport event, may be banned by court order:

- a) from visiting any sport event held within the framework of competition organized by any sports association, or
- b) from entering any sports facility where a sport event held within the framework of competition organized by any sports association is held.

(2) The minimum duration of the ban shall be one year, its maximum duration shall be five years.

(3) The duration of the ban shall begin when the sentence becomes enforceable. Where a ban from visiting sport events is ordered in addition to a term of imprisonment, the period of time of imprisonment served, and the period of time during which the convict withdraws himself from the execution of the imprisonment shall not be included in its duration. If the parole is not withdrawn, the time spent on parole shall be included in the duration of the ban from visiting sport events.

Expulsion

Section 59

(1) Perpetrators of citizenship other than Hungarian, whose presence in the country is not desirable, shall be expelled from the territory of Hungary. Persons expelled shall leave the territory of the country and may not return for the duration of the term of expulsion.

(2) Persons granted asylum may not be expelled.

(3) Expulsion may be imposed upon a person who has the right of free movement and residence or a person with the right of residence in the territory of Hungary under permanent resident or refugee status only in connection with the commission of a criminal offense that is punishable by imprisonment of five or more years.

(4) Expulsion may only be imposed upon a person sentenced to a term of imprisonment of ten years or more:

- a) who has been residing in the territory of Hungary legitimately for not less than ten years; or
- b) whose right to family union would be injured;

provided that the presence of the perpetrator in the country is assessed as posing a potential and considerable risk to public safety.

Section 60

(1) Expulsion may be ordered for a definite term, or permanently.

(2) The minimum duration of a fixed-term expulsion shall be one year, its maximum duration shall be ten years.

(3) Permanent expulsion may be imposed upon a person who was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of ten years or more, and presence of the perpetrator in the country is assessed as posing a potential and considerable risk to public safety taking into account the severity of the criminal offense, the nature of the act and the connections of the perpetrator. A person with the right of free movement and residence may not be expelled permanently.

(4) The duration of expulsion shall begin when the sentence becomes enforceable. The period of time of imprisonment served shall not be included in the duration of expulsion.

(5) Upon request, the court may release a person subject to permanent expulsion from the effect of such expulsion if such person is deemed worthy and if ten years have passed since the expulsion.

Deprivation of Civil Rights

Section 61

(1) Any person who is sentenced to executable imprisonment for an intentional criminal offense, and is deemed unworthy of the right to participate in public affairs, shall be deprived of these rights.

(2) Persons deprived of civil rights:

a) shall not have the right to vote and may not participate in any referendum and popular initiative;

b) may not hold a public office;

c) may not serve in bodies or committees of popular representation, and may not participate in their work;

d) may not be delegated to hold a seat in the general assembly or body of an international organization created under international treaty ratified by an act of Parliament;

e) may not be promoted to any military rank;

f) may not be granted a domestic decoration and may not be given permission for the acceptance of a foreign decoration;

g) may not serve as a defense counsel or legal representative in official proceedings;

h) may not accept any office in public bodies and public foundations; and

i) may not serve as an executive officer of a civil society organization as provided for in the act on civil society organizations.

(3) Effective as of the operative date of a sentence for the deprivation of civil rights, the person in question shall forfeit any membership, position, office, military rank, mandate or decoration that of which is prohibited under Subsection (2) hereof.

Section 62

(1) Deprivation of civil rights may be ordered for a definite term; the minimum duration shall be one year, and its maximum duration shall be ten years.

(2) The duration of the deprivation of civil rights shall begin when the sentence becomes enforceable. Where deprivation of civil rights is ordered, the period of time of imprisonment served, and the period of time during which the convicted perpetrator withdraws himself from the execution of the imprisonment shall not be included in its duration. If the parole is not withdrawn, the time spent on parole shall be included in the duration of deprivation of civil rights.

CHAPTER VIII

MEASURES

Section 63

(1) Measures are:

a) warning;

b) conditional sentence;

c) work performed in amends;

d) probation with supervision;

e) confiscation;

f) confiscation of property;

g) irreversibly rendering electronic information inaccessible;

h) involuntary treatment in a mental institution;

i) measures against legal persons imposed pursuant to the Act on Criminal Sanctions in Connection with the Criminal Liability of Legal Persons.

(2) Warning, conditional sentence and work performed in amends may be ordered independently, in place of a penalty.

(3) Probation with supervision may be imposed in addition to the penalty or measure. Probation with supervision may not be imposed in addition to expulsion.

(4) Confiscation of property and irreversibly rendering electronic information inaccessible may be ordered independently, or in addition to a penalty or measure.

Warning

Section 64

(1) Any person who engages in an act that represents a negligible degree of danger to society at the time of judgment or none at all, rendering unnecessary even the most lenient penalty or measure applicable in accordance with this Act - other than confiscation, confiscation of property and irreversibly rendering electronic information inaccessible - shall be given a warning.

(2) In issuing a warning the court or the public prosecutor expresses its disapproval and conveys its admonition advising against engaging in any criminal activity in the future.

Conditional Sentence

Section 65

(1) The court may defer the imposition of a sentence conditionally if it is for an infraction or felony punishable by imprisonment of up to three years if there are reasonable grounds to believe that probation will serve the purpose of rehabilitation.

(2) The following may not be released on probation:

a) recidivists;

b) persons sentenced for crimes committed in the framework of a criminal organization;

c) any person who has committed a criminal offense intentionally after having been sentenced to an executable term of imprisonment and before having finished serving his sentence; or

d) any person who has committed a criminal offense intentionally while on probation as a result of suspension of a prison sentence.

(3) The period of probation may be between one and three years; the duration shall be defined in years, or in years and months.

(4) The probationer may be placed under the supervision of a probation officer. If the probationer violates the rules of conduct of the probation, the term of probation may be extended once, by not more than one year.

Section 66

(1) The probation shall be terminated and punishment shall be imposed if:

a) the probationer is sentenced during the term of probation for a criminal offense committed before released on probation;

b) the probationer is sentenced for a criminal offense committed while on probation; or

c) the probationer seriously violates the rules of conduct of the probation.

(2) Apart from the cases provided for in Subsection (1), following the term of probation all charges against the probationer are dismissed.

Work Performed in Amends

Section 67

(1) The court may defer the imposition of a sentence for one year if it is for an infraction or for a felony punishable by imprisonment not exceeding three years, and shall order work to be performed in amends if there are reasonable grounds to believe that it will serve the purpose of rehabilitation. Work performed in amends may be ordered concurrently with probation with supervision.

(2) Work performed in amends may not be imposed if the perpetrator:

a) is a recidivist;

b) committed the criminal offense in the framework of a criminal organization;

c) committed a criminal offense intentionally after having been sentenced to serve a prison term and before having finished serving his sentence; or

d) committed a criminal offense intentionally while on probation as a result of suspension of a prison sentence.

(3) The perpetrator shall have the option to perform work in amends either at or for the benefit of a State or local institution, at a public benefit civil society organization, or a church.

(4) The duration of work performed in amends shall be defined in hours; it may not be less than twenty-four hours and may not be more than one hundred and fifty hours.

Section 68

(1) If the perpetrator provides adequate proof within one year of having performed work in amends, all charges shall be dismissed.

(2) If the perpetrator fails to provide adequate proof of having performed work in amends, or if seriously violates the rules of conduct of the probation, the court shall impose a penalty. If the perpetrator is unable to provide adequate proof of having performed work in amends due to health reasons, the time limit for verification of having performed work in amends may be extended once, by not more than one year.

Probation with Supervision

Section 69

(1) A person may be placed under probation with supervision:

- a) for the duration of deferral of prosecution;
- b) for the duration of parole;
- c) for the duration of probation;
- d) concurrently with ordering work to be performed in amends;
- e) for the probation period of a suspended sentence;

if constant supervision of the perpetrator is deemed necessary to facilitate the reason for these actions.

(2) Probation with supervision shall be ordered:

- a) for the convicted perpetrator if released on parole from life imprisonment;
- b) for the recidivist if released on parole or sentenced to a term of imprisonment the execution of which is conditionally suspended.

Section 70

(1) The duration of probation with supervision shall be the same:

- a) as the duration of the period of parole;
- b) the probation period of a conditional sentence;
- c) the probation period of a suspended sentence;
- d) the duration of deferral of prosecution;

up to five years, or up to fifteen years if the convicted perpetrator is released on parole from life imprisonment.

(2) Probation with supervision ordered concurrently with work to be performed in amends shall cover the period ending when the offender ordered to perform work in amends provides proof of having completed such work, not exceeding one year.

(3) In the case provided for in Subsection (1) of Section 69, the probation officer shall formulate an opinion upon completion of half of the term of supervision, but at least after one year, to have the person in question released from supervision if it is deemed devoid of purpose.

Section 71

(1) The probationer shall observe the following probation measures:

- a) the rules of conduct laid down by legislation and the relevant resolution;
- b) maintain regular contact with the probation officer; and

c) provide information to the probation officer to the extent deemed necessary for the purpose of supervision.

(2) The ruling of the court, or the prosecutor in the case of deferred prosecution, may include specific rules of conduct to prescribe obligations and prohibitions with a view to the objectives of probation. The court or the prosecutor may order that the person released on probation:

a) must not maintain any contact with a specific person who took part in the commission of a crime;

b) must stay away from the victim of the crime, or from his/her residence, place of work or the educational institution he/she may attend, including any place frequented by the victim;

c) must refrain from visiting certain specific public places, public events, as well as certain specific public areas and places;

d) must refrain from consuming alcoholic beverages in public;

e) must report at the place and in the time prescribed, at the agency or person specified;

f) must contact the government employment agency, or report to the local authorities for public benefit employment;

g) must pursue specific studies;

h) must receive - subject to his/her consent - specific medical treatment or attend a therapeutic, curative procedure;

i) must attend group functions arranged by the probation officer or other programs organized by the community program officer of the probation service.

(3) In addition to the rules of conduct enumerated in Subsection (2), the court or the prosecutor may prescribe further rules of conduct, with particular regard to the nature of the criminal offense, the extent of damage and to enhance the social integration of the perpetrator.

Confiscation

Section 72

(1) An object shall be confiscated:

a) which is actually used or intended to be used as an instrument for the commission of a criminal offense;

b) which is created by way of a criminal act;

c) for which the criminal act was committed, or that was used for the transportation of this object in connection with the criminal act after the fact;

d) the possession of which is assessed as posing a potential risk to public safety, or is illegal.

(2) Media products, in which a criminal act is realized, shall be confiscated.

(3) In the cases provided for in Paragraphs a) and c) of Subsection (1), confiscation shall not be ordered if the object is not owned by the perpetrator, provided that the owner was unaware of the perpetration of the criminal act, unless confiscation is prescribed mandatory under international legal commitments.

(4) Confiscation shall be ordered, even if:

a) the perpetrator cannot be prosecuted for reason of minority or insanity, or due to other grounds for exemption from criminal responsibility;

b) the perpetrator had been given a warning;

c) it cannot be executed during the period of special protection specified by the Act on the Special Protection of Borrowed Cultural Goods.

(5) Confiscation of an object shall not be ordered if it falls within the scope of confiscation of property.

(6) Confiscated objects shall devolve upon the State unless otherwise prescribed by law.

(7) No confiscation shall be ordered after the lapse of the statute of limitations for the punishment of the act, or beyond a period of five years.

Section 73

In the cases provided for in Paragraphs a) and c) of Subsection (1) of Section 72, confiscation may be omitted in exceptional cases if it would entail an unreasonable burden to the perpetrator or the owner, disproportionate to the severity of the criminal offense:

a) except if the omission of confiscation is precluded by any international legal obligation;

b) except if the perpetrator committed the criminal offense in the framework of a criminal organization;

c) with the exception of unlawful drug trafficking, possession of narcotic drugs, aiding in the manufacture or production of narcotic drugs, criminal offenses with materials used for the production or manufacture of narcotic drugs, illegal possession of new psychoactive substances, criminal offenses with performance enhancers, falsification of medicinal products, criminal offenses with toxic substances, criminal offenses with harmful consumer goods, damaging the natural environment, cruelty to animals, poaching fish, poaching game, organization of illegal animal fights, illegal use of any substance with ozone depletion potential, misappropriation of radioactive materials, illegal operation of nuclear installation, illegal possession of explosives and destructive devices, criminal offenses with firearms and ammunition, criminal offenses with weapons prohibited by international convention, criminal offenses with military items and services, criminal offenses with dual-use items or violation of legal liabilities relating to the keeping of dangerous dogs.

Confiscation of Property

Section 74

(1) The following shall be subject to confiscation of property:

a) any financial gain or advantage resulting from criminal activities, obtained by the offender in the course of or in connection with, a criminal act;

b) any financial gain or advantage obtained by an offender in connection with crimes committed in the framework of a criminal organization;

c) any financial gain or advantage obtained by an offender in connection with unlawful drug trafficking, in the course thereof;

d) any financial gain or advantage that was used to replace the financial gain or advantage obtained by the offender in the course of or in connection with, a criminal act;

e) any property that was supplied or intended to be used to finance the means used for the commission of a crime, the conditions required therefor or facilitating thereof;

f) any property embodying the subject of financial gain given or promised.

(2) Any financial gain or advantage resulting from criminal activities, obtained by the offender in the course of or in connection with, a criminal act, also if it served the enrichment of another person, shall be confiscated. If such gain or advantage was obtained by an economic operator, this economic operator shall be subject to confiscation of property.

(3) In the event of death of the perpetrator or the person profiteering as specified in Subsection (2), or the economic operator was transformed, the property transferred by succession shall be seized from the successor in title as specified in Subsection (1).

(4) In the absence of proof to the contrary, all assets obtained by the perpetrator:

a) in the framework of a criminal organization, in the case provided for in Paragraph b) of Subsection (1),

b) in the course of or in connection with drug trafficking, in the case provided for in Paragraph c) of Subsection (1), shall be subject to confiscation.

(5) Confiscation of property may not be ordered:

a) in connection with assets reserved to cover any civil claim awarded during the criminal proceedings;

b) in connection with assets obtained in good faith for consideration;

c) in the case referred to in Paragraphs b) and c) of Subsection (1), if the property is proven to be legitimate.

Section 75

(1) Confiscation of property shall be ordered for a specific sum:

a) if the property is no longer accessible;

b) if the property to be seized subject to confiscation under Subsection (1) of Section 74 cannot be separated from other assets, or it would impose unreasonable difficulties;

c) in the case referred to in Paragraph b) of Subsection (5) of Section 74.

(2) Confiscation of property shall be ordered, even if:

a) the perpetrator cannot be prosecuted for reason of minority or insanity, or due to other grounds for exemption from criminal responsibility;

b) the perpetrator had been given a warning;

c) it cannot be executed during the period of special protection specified by the Act on the Special Protection of Borrowed Cultural Goods.

(3) Seized assets shall become the property of the State unless provided for by law to the contrary.

Section 76

For the purposes of this subtitle, any profits, intangible assets, claims of any monetary value and any financial gain or advantage shall be deemed assets.

Irreversibly Rendering Electronic Information Inaccessible

Section 77

(1) Data disclosed through an electronic communications network shall be rendered irreversibly inaccessible:

- a) the publication or disclosure of which constitutes a criminal offense;
- b) which is actually used as an instrument for the commission of a criminal act; or
- c) which is created by way of a criminal act.

(2) The order for irreversibly rendering electronic information inaccessible shall be issued even if the perpetrator cannot be prosecuted for reason of minority or insanity, or due to other grounds for exemption from criminal responsibility, or if the perpetrator had been given a warning.

Involuntary Treatment in a Mental Institution

Section 78

(1) A person engaged in a violent crime against the person or in a punishable criminal offense that endangers the public shall be subjected to treatment in a mental institution if he cannot be prosecuted due to his mental condition, and there is reason to believe that he will commit a similar act, if the same crime carries a penalty of imprisonment of one or more years.

(2) Involuntary treatment in a mental institution shall be terminated if it is deemed devoid of purpose.

CHAPTER IX

SENTENCING

Aim of Punishment

Section 79

The aim of a punishment is to prevent - in the interest of the protection of society - the perpetrator or any other person from committing an act of crime.

Sentencing Principles

Section 80

(1) Punishment shall be imposed within the framework provided for in this Act, having in mind its intended objective, as consistent with the severity of the criminal offense, with the degree of culpability, the danger the perpetrator represents to society, and with other aggravating and mitigating circumstances.

(2) Where a sentence of imprisonment is delivered for a fixed term, the median of the prescribed scale of penalties shall be applicable. The median constitutes half of the sum of the lowest and highest penalties to be imposed.

(3) Where the upper limit of the sentence prescribed in the Special Part for any act of crime is to be increased according to this Act, the calculation specified in Subsection (2) shall be carried out in respect of such higher scale of penalties.

(4) If the court delivers a sentence of imprisonment, the length of imprisonment shall be determined without allowing for the opportunity of probation or parole.

Cumulative Sentences

Section 81

- (1) In case of multiple counts of offenses a single cumulative sentence shall be imposed.
- (2) The penalty shall be imposed based on the types of punishment and according to the most severe one prescribed for the gravest of the multiple offenses to which it pertains.
- (3) If, in respect of a multiple count of charges, at least two is punishable by a fixed-term imprisonment, the upper limit of the applicable punishment shall be increased by one-half of the maximum penalty prescribed, however, it may not reach the total duration of the maximum sentences established for such criminal acts.
- (4) If, in respect of multiple counts of charges, at least three counts constitute violent crimes against persons committed at different times, the upper limit of the applicable penalty set out in Subsection (2) shall be doubled. If the upper limit of the applicable penalty increased as per the above would exceed twenty years, or if either of the said criminal offenses in the multiple counts carry a maximum sentence of life imprisonment, the perpetrator in question must be sentenced to life imprisonment. However, where this is permitted under the General Part of this Act, the penalty may be reduced without limitation.
- (5) The additional penalty may not exceed the highest measure or duration prescribed in this Act in the case of cumulative sentences.

Commutation of Sentences

Section 82

- (1) A punishment less severe than the punishment applicable may be imposed, if the minimum sentence is deemed too harsh based on the principles of sentencing.
- (2) Within the meaning of Subsection (1), if the minimum sentence to be imposed for a criminal act is:
 - a) ten years of imprisonment, it may be reduced to a minimum of five years of imprisonment;
 - b) five years of imprisonment, it may be reduced to a minimum of two years of imprisonment;
 - c) two years of imprisonment, it may be reduced to a minimum of one year of imprisonment;
 - d) one year of imprisonment, it may be reduced to a lesser term of imprisonment.
- (3) In the case provided for in Paragraph d) of Subsection (2), imprisonment may be substituted by custodial arrest, community service work or fine, and these penalties may be imposed concurrently as well.
- (4) In respect of attempt or aiding and abetting, if the sentence to be imposed under Subsection (2) remains excessive, the next sentencing category of Subsection (2) shall be applied.
- (5) If this Act allows unlimited mitigation, the minimum sentence for any type of punishment may be imposed.

Sentencing in the Case of Waiver of the Right to Trial

Section 83

- (1) With the exceptions set out in Subsection (2), in the case of a waiver of the right to trial, the lower limits of the less severe penalties provided for in Subsection (2) of Section 82 shall be applied in sentencing.
- (2) In the case of waiver of the right to trial by a defendant who is cooperating, the term of imprisonment may not exceed:
 - a) three years in respect of crimes punishable by imprisonment not exceeding eight years;

b) two years in respect of crimes punishable by imprisonment not exceeding five years;

c) six months in respect of crimes punishable by imprisonment not exceeding three years.

(3) If waiver of the right to trial applies on account of a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment exceeding eight years, the more severe provisions on criminal offenses committed in the framework of a criminal organization shall not apply, and the penalty shall be imposed within the lower and upper limits prescribed by this Act for the offense in question.

Section 84

(1) In the case of waiver of the right to trial, the provisions on cumulative sentences shall apply in respect of multiple count of charges, with the proviso that the maximum penalty for multiple counts of criminal acts shall be imposed according to the one prescribed for the most severe of the penalties to be imposed under Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 83.

(2) If, in respect of a multiple count of charges, at least two is punishable by a fixed-term imprisonment under this Act, the maximum penalty applicable under Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 83 shall be increased by the median of the penalty prescribed, however, it may not reach the total duration of the maximum sentences established under Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 83 separately for the offenses in question.

Suspension of the Execution of Imprisonment

Section 85

(1) The execution of a term of imprisonment of two years or less may be suspended conditionally, if there is reason to believe - particularly in view of the personal circumstances of the perpetrator - that the aim of the punishment may also be attained this way.

(2) Unless otherwise provided for in this Act, the period of probation shall be between one to five years, however, it may not be less than the term of imprisonment imposed. The period of probation shall be defined in years, or in years and months.

Section 86

(1) Execution of a sentence of imprisonment may not be suspended if the perpetrator:

a) is a repeat offender;

b) committed the crime in the framework of a criminal organization, or

c) committed a criminal offense intentionally before he has finished serving his sentence, or during the probation period of a conditional sentence.

(2) If a perpetrator is incarcerated on account of which the suspended sentence of imprisonment cannot be carried out, the period of probation shall be extended by the duration of the imprisonment.

(3) The provision contained in Subsection (2) shall also apply where community service work and fine is substituted by imprisonment.

(4) In the application of Subsections (2) and (3), the period of probation may exceed five years.

(5) Where the perpetrator has been sentenced several times to a prison term suspended for a period of probation, and the period of probation of these terms have not yet lapsed, all such periods shall apply concurrently.

(6) Simultaneously with the suspension of carrying out a sentence of imprisonment the perpetrator may be placed under the supervision of a probation officer. If the perpetrator is a recidivist he must be placed under probation with supervision.

Section 87

A suspended sentence shall be carried out if:

a) it is established during the period of probation that it has been suspended in contrast with the provisions set out in Subsection (1) of Section 86,

b) the perpetrator is sentenced to executable imprisonment for a crime committed during the period of probation, or

c) the perpetrator seriously violates the rules of conduct of the probation.

Section 88

In the event that a suspension of punishment is granted for reasons of clemency, the provisions pertaining to the carrying out of a suspended sentence shall apply mutatis mutandis when ordering the execution of such penalty.

Provisions Relating to Habitual and Repeat Offenders, and Repeat Offenders with a History of Violence

Section 89

(1) In respect of habitual and repeat offenders - unless this Act provides otherwise - the maximum penalty applicable to another criminal offense committed shall increase by half in the case of imprisonment, however, it may not exceed twenty-five years. In respect of cumulative sentences and in respect of the waiver of the right to trial, the penalty set out in Subsection (3) of Section 81 and in Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 83, respectively, shall be increased by one half.

(2) The punishment of habitual and repeat offenders may be reduced on the basis of Subsection (1) of Section 82 only in cases deserving special consideration.

(3) The more severe legal consequences set out in Subsection (1) shall not apply if the Special Part of this Act prescribes sentencing for habitual recidivists to consider such as an aggravating circumstance.

Section 90

(1) Subsection (4) of Section 33 shall not apply to repeat offenders with a history of violence.

(2) The minimum sentence for violent crimes against the person, if committed by repeat offenders with a history of violence and if carrying a higher sentence, the maximum penalty prescribed for such crimes, if punishable by imprisonment, shall be doubled. If the maximum penalty increased as per the above would exceed twenty years, or if either of the said offenses carry a maximum sentence of life imprisonment, the perpetrator in question must be sentenced to life imprisonment.

(3) The punishment of repeat offenders with a history of violence:

a) shall not be reduced under Subsection (1) of Section 82;

b) may be reduced without limitation where this is permitted under the General Part of this Act.

Crimes Committed in the Framework of a Criminal Organization

Section 91

(1) Any person who has knowingly committed a criminal act in the framework of a criminal organization shall be subject to double of the maximum penalty prescribed for the crime in question, however, it shall not exceed twenty-five years. In respect of cumulative sentences and in respect of the waiver of the right to trial, the terms of penalties set out in Subsection (3) of Section 81 and in Subsections (1)-(2) of Section 83, respectively, shall apply.

(2) Any person committing a crime in the framework of a criminal organization shall be subject to banishment.

(3) Upon conviction for a crime committed in the framework of a criminal organization, the legal consequences prescribed in this Act for crimes committed in criminal association with accomplices cannot be applied.

Inclusion of Preliminary Detention and House Arrest

Section 92

(1) The entire duration of preliminary detention and house arrest shall be included in the final sentence, whether it is a term of imprisonment, custodial arrest, community service work or a fine.

(2) For the purposes of inclusion, one day of preliminary detention shall correspond to one day of imprisonment, one day of custodial arrest, one day's worth of fine or to four hours of community service work.

(3) For the inclusion of house arrest:

a) one day of imprisonment shall correspond, respectively, to five, four and three days of house arrest if served in a penitentiary, correctional institution or jail;

b) one day of custodial arrest shall correspond to two days of house arrest;

c) four hours of community service work shall correspond to one day of house arrest;

d) one day's worth of fine shall correspond to one day of house arrest.

(4) If any duration of preliminary detention or house arrest remains after the inclusions under Subsections (2) and (3) hereof, it shall be counted as one day of imprisonment.

Merger of Sentences

Section 93

(1) If the perpetrator is sentenced to more than one fixed-term imprisonment, the sentences imposed in a final judgment shall be included - in accordance with the relevant legislation - in a single sentence if the defendant has committed all crimes prior to the date when the first judgment was delivered.

(2) Merger may include sentences for executable terms of imprisonment, that were still pending at the time when ordering the merger of sentences, or which are being served consecutively.

(3) Where a suspended sentence is to be carried out subsequently, for the purposes of merger it shall be hereinafter treated as an executable term of imprisonment.

(4) The following may not be merged:

a) sentences which have been merged previously;

b) terms of imprisonment substituting a fine or community service work.

Section 94

The term of merged sentences shall be determined as if imposing a cumulative sentence. Nevertheless, the term of merged sentences shall be at least equal to the most severe sentence and the minimum penalty or one-third of all penalties combined, however, it may not exceed the combined duration of all sentences.

Section 95

(1) In the case of the merger of offenses for which imprisonment is imposed to be executed in different degrees, the merged sentences shall be carried out in the most severe degree. However, if the term of imprisonment imposed in a merger of sentences is for three years or more, or, in case of a repeat offender, two or more years, the merged sentence shall be carried out in the degree determined accordingly.

(2) If the degree of execution to be established under Subsection (1) would constitute an unreasonable disadvantage for the convicted perpetrator, a lesser degree may be authorized.

Section 96

(1) Where prohibition to exercise professional activity, driving ban, prohibition from residing in a particular area, ban from visiting sport events or expulsion is ordered in addition to a term of imprisonment, and the terms of imprisonment had been merged in a single sentence, from the multiple counts of prohibition to exercise professional activity, driving ban, prohibition from residing in a particular area, ban from visiting sport events or expulsion, the one that carries more severe sanctions upon the convicted perpetrator shall be executed.

(2) Where deprivation of civil rights is imposed as an additional penalty, it may not be merged with other penalties. Where deprivation of civil rights is imposed in several counts, the one with the longest term shall be carried out.

CHAPTER X

EXONERATION FROM THE DETRIMENTAL CONSEQUENCES ATTACHED TO PRIOR CONVICTIONS

Detrimental Consequences Attached to Prior Convictions

Section 97

(1) Detrimental legal effects connected to any prior conviction for a criminal offense, and to having received a penalty or measure may be established by an act of Parliament.

(2) Information on prior convictions and on the penalties and measures imposed are contained in the relevant official public register until the time prescribed by law, after which no detrimental legal effects shall apply on account of such prior convictions against the convicted perpetrator.

Scope of Exoneration

Section 98

(1) Unless otherwise provided for by law, upon exoneration the convicted person in question is relieved from the detrimental consequences which are attached by law to any prior conviction.

(2) The person cleared by exoneration shall be deemed to have a clean criminal record, and - unless otherwise provided for by law - he cannot be required to give account of any conviction from which he has been exonerated.

(3) Where a new act of crime is committed, the exoneration shall not extend to those detrimental consequences which are attached by this Act to a previous conviction.

Mode of Exoneration

Section 99

The convicted person may be exonerated:

- a)* on the strength of this Act;
- b)* on the basis of a court ruling; or
- c)* by an act of clemency.

Statutory Exoneration

Section 100

(1) Exoneration shall take effect by virtue of this Act:

- a)* in connection with custodial arrest, fine and community service work on the day when the sentence becomes final;
- b)* in connection with prohibition to exercise professional activity, driving ban, prohibition from residing in a particular area and ban from visiting sport events on the day when the sentence becomes final;
- c)* in the case of expulsion, on the day when the penalty is executed or when it ceases to be enforceable;
- d)* in the case of a suspended sentence, on the last day of the probation period;
- e)* in the case of any term of imprisonment imposed due to a negligent misdemeanor, on the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable;
- f)* in the case of imprisonment of one year or less imposed for an intentional criminal offense, after a period of three years following the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable;
- g)* in the case of imprisonment between one year and five years imposed for an intentional criminal offense, after a period of five years following the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable;
- h)* in the case of imprisonment between five years and ten years imposed for an intentional criminal offense, after a period of eight years following the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable;
- i)* in the case of imprisonment of a fixed term of ten years or more imposed for an intentional criminal offense, after a period of ten years following the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable.

(2) In the case of Paragraph b) of Subsection (1) exoneration shall not extend:

- a)* in the case of prohibition to exercise professional activity, to the right to pursue the profession in question;
- b)* in the case of a driving ban, to the right of exercising driving privileges;
- c)* in the case of prohibition from residing in a particular area, to the right of residing in the municipality or section of the country to which the prohibition pertains;
- d)* in the case of a ban from visiting sport events, to the right of visiting sport events.

(3) In the case of Paragraph d) of Subsection (1), the exoneration shall not take effect or it shall be withdrawn if the sentence is ordered to be carried out. In such a case, the rules of exoneration relating to executable terms of imprisonment shall apply.

Judicial Exoneration

Section 101

(1) The court may, upon request, exonerate a convicted perpetrator if found worthy and half of the period defined in Paragraphs f)-i) of Subsection (1) of Section 100 has already lapsed following the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable.

(2) Worthiness shall be determined in light of the way of life the person has conducted since having served the punishment, furthermore, whether he has made amends for the injury caused by his act to the extent possible.

Section 102

(1) The court may grant preliminary exoneration, if it suspends the sentence of imprisonment and the person in question is found worthy for exoneration.

(2) The preliminary exoneration shall be withdrawn if the suspended sentence is ordered to be carried out.

Uniform Exoneration

Section 103

If an additional penalty is imposed, the convicted perpetrator shall not be relieved from the detrimental consequences attached to prior convictions, and he may not be exonerated, insofar as the additional penalty is carried out or it did not cease to be enforceable.

Exoneration by Act of Clemency

Section 104

(1) The person exercising executive clemency may grant exoneration to a person if this may not otherwise take place in accordance with this Act.

(2) The person exonerated by an act of clemency shall be deemed to have a clean criminal record in respect of the detrimental consequences outside the penal framework.

CHAPTER XI

PROVISIONS RELATING TO YOUNG PEOPLE

Basic Provisions

Section 105

(1) 'Juvenile offender' shall mean any person between the age of twelve and eighteen years at the time of committing a criminal offense.

(2) The provisions of this Act shall apply to juveniles with the exceptions set out in this Chapter.

Section 106

(1) The principle objective of any penalty or measure imposed upon a juvenile is to positively influence the juvenile's development to become a useful member of society, and such penalty or measure should therefore have as a primary consideration the juvenile's guidance, education and protection.

(2) A penalty shall be imposed upon a juvenile when the application of a measure appears to be impractical. Only measures may be imposed upon a person who has not reached the age of fourteen years at the time the criminal offense was committed.

(3) A measure or penalty involving the deprivation of liberty may only be imposed against a juvenile offender if the aim of the measure or penalty cannot otherwise be achieved.

Active Repentance

Section 107

If the perpetrator is a juvenile, voluntary restitution may be provided also in misdemeanor cases under Subsection (1) of Section 29 and in connection with felonies which carry a sentence of imprisonment not exceeding five years.

Penalties and Measures

Section 108

(1) The measures to be imposed against juveniles shall inter alia include placement in a reformatory institution.

(2) No imprisonment, custodial arrest or community service work may be imposed in addition to being placed in a reformatory institution.

Imprisonment

Section 109

(1) The minimum term of imprisonment to be imposed upon juvenile offenders shall be one month for all types of criminal acts.

(2) The maximum term of imprisonment that may be imposed upon a juvenile offender over the age of sixteen years at the time the crime is committed shall be:

a) ten years for a crime that carries a maximum sentence of life imprisonment;

b) five years for a crime that carries a prison term of more than five years.

(3) The maximum term of imprisonment that may be imposed against a juvenile offender over the age of sixteen years at the time the crime is committed shall be:

a) fifteen years for a crime that carries a maximum sentence of life imprisonment;

b) ten years for a crime that carries a prison term of more than ten years;

c) five years for a crime that carries a prison term of more than five years.

(4) When calculating the period of limitation and for the purposes of the provisions pertaining to repeat offenders, the durations specified in Subsections (2)-(3) shall apply.

Section 110

(1) A sentence of imprisonment imposed shall be carried out in a juvenile detention facility if:

a) the juvenile is sentenced to imprisonment of two years or more for a felony;

b) the juvenile is a recidivist and was sentenced to imprisonment of one year or more; or

c) the juvenile sentenced to imprisonment of one year or more and, within a period of three years prior to having committed a criminal offense intentionally, he was sentenced to confinement in a reformatory institution for an intentional criminal offense.

(2) Apart from the cases provided for in Subsection (1), a sentence of imprisonment imposed shall be carried out in a juvenile jail.

Custodial Arrest

Section 111

The minimum duration of custodial arrest to be imposed upon a juvenile shall be three days, its maximum duration shall be thirty days.

Community Service Work

Section 112

Community service work may only be imposed against juvenile offenders over the age of sixteen years at the time of sentencing.

The Fine

Section 113

(1) A fine may be imposed on a juvenile offender if he has independent earnings, income or sufficient assets.

(2) In the case of juvenile offenders the fine expressed in daily units shall be not less than fifteen and not more than two hundred and fifty days. The amount of fine for one daily unit shall be minimum five hundred and maximum fifty thousand forints.

(3) In the case of juvenile offenders, the fine, if cannot be enforced:

a) shall be substituted by community service work, where so permitted under Section 112; or

b) shall be substituted by imprisonment.

(4) The length of community service work imposed in substitution of a fine shall be determined where one day's worth of fine shall correspond to two hours of community service work. Moreover, where community service work is imposed in substitution of a fine, the provisions of Section 47 shall apply, with the proviso that its duration may differ from what is contained in Subsection (1) of Section 47.

(5) If a juvenile offender fails to voluntarily comply with his work obligation, the community service work, or the remaining part thereof, shall be substituted to imprisonment. Otherwise the provisions of Section 48 shall apply.

Expulsion

Section 114

Expulsion may be ordered against a juvenile offender if:

- a) sentenced to imprisonment of ten or more years;
- b) his presence in the country is assessed as posing a potential and considerable risk to public safety; and
- c) his right to respect for family life would not be injured.

Deprivation of Civil Rights

Section 115

A juvenile may be deprived of his civil rights only if sentenced to a term of imprisonment over one year.

Conditional Sentence

Section 116

- (1) A juvenile offender may be sentenced conditionally in connection with any crime.
- (2) The period of probation may be between one and two years.
- (3) The court shall order placement in a reformatory institution or impose a penalty in the case provided for in Subsection (1) of Section 66.

Work Performed in Amends

Section 117

Work to be performed in amends may only be imposed upon juvenile offenders over the age of sixteen years at the time of sentencing.

Prohibition from Residing in a Particular Area

Section 118

A juvenile who lives in an appropriate family environment may not be banned from the municipality in which his family is residing.

Probation with Supervision

Section 119

- (1) Juvenile offenders shall be placed under the supervision of a probation officer:
 - a) for the duration of the period of parole;
 - b) for the duration of probation;
 - c) for the duration of suspension of a prison sentence;
 - d) for the duration of temporary release from the reformatory institution;
 - e) for the duration of deferral of prosecution.

(2) In the case of juvenile offenders work performed in amends shall be ordered concurrently with probation with supervision.

Placement in a Reformatory Institution

Section 120

(1) The court shall order placement in a reformatory institution if proper education of the juvenile can only be provided in an institution. Placement in a reformatory institution may not be ordered against a person over the age of twenty years at the time of sentencing.

(2) The duration of placement in a reformatory institution may be between one year to four years.

Section 121

(1) In ordering placement in a reformatory institution the court shall establish that the juvenile offender may be released from the reformatory institution temporarily after half of the duration of placement as ordered:

a) having spent at least one year in the institution, and

b) if there is reason to believe that the aim of the measure may also be achieved without further confinement in the reformatory institution.

(2) The duration of temporary release shall be the remaining part of confinement, but at least one year.

(3) The court shall terminate the temporary release if the juvenile is sentenced to any term of imprisonment during the temporary release - with the exception set out in Section 122 - or to placement in a reformatory institution. If the court imposes another penalty or measure against the juvenile, temporary release may be terminated.

(4) In case of the termination of temporary release the period spent on temporary release may not be included in the term of placement in the reformatory institution.

Section 122

If the juvenile offender is sentenced to an executable term of imprisonment for a crime committed after being sentenced to placement in a reformatory institution during the period of placement in a reformatory institution or temporary release, the imprisonment shall be carried out. In that case the remainder of the duration of placement in a reformatory institution shall be substituted to imprisonment, with two days of placement in a reformatory institution substituted by one day of imprisonment.

Cumulative Sentences, Merger of Sentences

Section 123

(1) In the case of juvenile offenders, cumulative and merged sentences may not exceed:

a) twenty years of imprisonment in the case provided for in Paragraph a) of Subsection (3) of Section 109;

b) fifteen years of imprisonment in the cases provided for in Paragraph a) of Subsection (2) and Paragraph b) of Subsection (3) of Section 109;

c) seven years and six months of imprisonment in the cases provided for in Paragraph b) of Subsection (2) and Paragraph c) of Subsection (3) of Section 109.

(2) The term of imprisonment that may be imposed upon a juvenile offender may not exceed the measure defined in Paragraphs a) and b) of Subsection (1) even in the cases provided for in Subsection (4) of Section 81 and Subsection (2) of Section 90.

(3) Where placement in a reformatory institution and imprisonment is imposed concurrently, the imprisonment shall be carried out. The term of this imprisonment may be extended by not more than one year if it is deemed necessary for achieving the aim defined in Section 106. However, the duration of the extension may not amount to the remaining part of placement in the reformatory institution.

Consolidated Measures

Section 124

(1) If the court has sentenced a juvenile to several terms of placement in a reformatory institution that were still pending at the time when ordering a consolidated measure, or which are being served continuously, the court shall order the juvenile to confinement in a reformatory institution as a consolidated measure.

(2) The term of placement in reformatory institution ordered as a consolidated measure shall be imposed at least for the maximum term of placement, not to exceed the combined terms of placements ordered, or four years.

Inclusion of Preliminary Detention and House Arrest

Section 125

(1) The entire duration of preliminary detention and house arrest shall be included in the term of placement in a reformatory institution as ordered.

(2) For the purposes of inclusion, one day of preliminary detention and three days of house arrest shall correspond to one day of placement in a reformatory institution. If any duration of house arrest remains after the inclusion, it shall be counted as one day of placement in a reformatory institution.

Exoneration

Section 126

(1) A juvenile offender shall be exonerated by virtue of law:

a) on the day the sentence becomes final, if execution of the term of imprisonment imposed is conditionally suspended;

b) on the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable, if sentenced to imprisonment of one year or less for an intentional criminal offense;

c) after a period of three years following the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable, if sentenced to imprisonment between one to five years for an intentional criminal offense.

(2) The court may grant exoneration for a juvenile offender upon request, after having served a term of imprisonment of one year or more and imposed for an intentional criminal offense if he is found worthy of exoneration.

CHAPTER XII

PROVISIONS RELATING TO MILITARY PERSONNEL

The Offenders

Section 127

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, members of the regular force of the Hungarian Armed Forces, and the professional staff members of the police, the Parliament Guard, the department of corrections, the professional disaster management body and the civilian national security services shall be deemed servicemen.
- (2) The provisions of this Act shall apply to military personnel subject to the exceptions set out in this Chapter.
- (3) A military offense may only be committed by military personnel as perpetrator.

Criminal Acts Committed Against a Soldier of Another State

Section 128

(1) The provisions of Chapter XLV shall apply in respect of military personnel for having committed a criminal offense:

- a)* against a soldier of an allied army, or
- b)* against a soldier of another State when stationed in a foreign theater of operations and engaged in humanitarian activities, peacekeeping or humanitarian operations, or during any other foreign service, while engaged in joint maneuvers.

(2) For the purposes of Paragraph a) of Subsection (1) a soldier of an allied army shall mean a member of the police or civil defense service of the State of such allied armed force; and a soldier of another State and a member of the police or civil defense service of another State as well for the purposes of Paragraph b) of Subsection (1).

Section 129

The provisions of Chapter XLV shall also apply in respect of military personnel for having committed a criminal offense:

- a)* while serving in allied armed forces;
- b)* while stationed in a foreign theater of operations and engaged in humanitarian activities, peacekeeping or humanitarian operations.

Grounds for Partial Exemption from Criminal Responsibility

Section 130

(1) A soldier may not be prosecuted for any act carried out as ordered, except if he was aware that carrying out the command constituted a criminal offense.

(2) The person giving the command shall also be liable for the criminal offense committed as ordered as perpetrator, if the soldier was aware that carrying out the command constituted a criminal offense; otherwise the person giving the command shall be prosecuted as a covert offender.

Grounds for Total Exemption from Criminal Responsibility

Section 131

Save where Subsection (1) of Section 66 applies, a perpetrator shall not be prosecuted for a military offense after one year from the date of being discharged from service.

Military Guardhouse

Section 132

(1) If the convicted person may be retained in service, imprisonment imposed for a misdemeanor for a term of one year or less, and custodial arrest shall be carried out in a military guardhouse, except if the convicted perpetrator is a recidivist.

(2) If the service relationship of the convicted perpetrator has terminated, the punishment or its remaining part shall be served in a jail.

Merger of Sentences

Section 133

The execution of a term of imprisonment imposed upon the merger of sentences shall be governed by Section 132.

Exclusion of Community Service Work

Section 134

Community service work may not be imposed upon military personnel during his service relationship.

Military Penalties

Section 135

(1) Military personnel may be subject to:

- a) loss of military rank; or
- b) dishonorable discharge;

(2) Military penalties may not be imposed if the serviceman in question has been deprived of civil rights.

Additional Penalties under Military Law

Section 136

(1) Military personnel may be subject to:

- a) demotion, or
- b) extension of the waiting time, imposed in addition to punishment.

(2) Additional penalties under military law may not be imposed concurrently with military penalties, or if the serviceman in question has been deprived of civil rights.

Loss of Military Rank

Section 137

- (1) 'Loss of military rank' shall mean when a soldier is deprived of his rank.
- (2) Loss of military rank shall be imposed if the perpetrator becomes unworthy of a rank.

Dishonorable Discharge

Section 138

Dishonorable discharge may be imposed if the perpetrator is deemed unworthy of service.

Military Demotion

Section 139

- (1) 'Military demotion' shall mean when a soldier is moved back one rank compared to his rank at the time of judgment of the crime.
- (2) Military demotion shall be imposed if the criminal offense harms the reputation of the rank, but no loss of military rank is necessary.
- (3) Simultaneously with the demotion, the time to be served in the lower rank shall be between one to two years, as ordered.

Extension of the Waiting Time

Section 140

- (1) 'Extension of waiting time' shall mean when the time a serviceman is required to wait for promotion to the next rank is extended. The extension shall be defined in years; its duration may not exceed half of the waiting time prescribed for the rank.
- (2) The waiting time shall be extended if the soldier has to merit the promotion by spending a longer waiting time.
- (3) As regards the members of the regular force of the Hungarian Armed Forces, the waiting time defined in Subsections (1) and (2) shall be construed as compulsory waiting periods.

Exoneration from the Detrimental Consequences Attached to Prior Convictions

Section 141

- (1) Exoneration shall take effect by the force of the law in connection with loss of military rank and dishonorable discharge on the day when the sentence becomes final.
- (2) The court may grant preliminary exoneration for a person from the detrimental consequences attached to prior convictions if it orders that the imprisonment be carried out in a military guardhouse. This exoneration shall take effect on the last day of serving the term of imprisonment or the day when it ceases to be enforceable.
- (3) The application of any additional penalty under military law shall not impede the exoneration of the person in question.
